Draft Supplement Environmental Assessment for the Middle Rio Grande Bosque Restoration Project, Bernalillo and Sandoval Counties,
New Mexico

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers (Corps), Albuquerque District, has completed the Draft Supplement Environmental Assessment for the Middle Rio Grande Bosque Restoration Project, Bernalillo and Sandoval Counties, New Mexico (DSEA). This proposed action is to construct additional restoration features on lands within the Pueblo of Sandia Site 1D north, including spoil of material along the levee; rehabilitation of a dump site within the Corrales Site 1A; and use of a staging area for restoration work at the San Antonio Oxbow Site 3A. All of these sites were discussed in The Middle Rio Grande Restoration Project, Bernalillo and Sandoval Counties, New Mexico Environmental Assessment (EA) and the Feasibility Study. The Finding of No Significant Impact (FONSI) was signed on June 6, 2011. Restoration activities were discussed and analyzed in the original EA. This Draft Supplement Environmental Assessment for the Middle Rio Grande Restoration Project (DSEA) will discuss the potential effects based upon the proposed additional features. Project construction would be phased over 2-3 years and be constructed with the project as approved original EA beginning in October 2014 and continue through April 2016, though no work would occur between April 15 and August 15, annually. Construction of the project as described in the original EA began in November 2011.

The DSEA is electronically available for viewing and copying at the Albuquerque District website (under "FONSI/ Environmental Assessments") at:
