John Martin Reservoir, Colorado

Master Plan Revision

Comment Period February 9 through March 12, 2018

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers is in the process of revising the John Martin Reservoir Master Plan. The master plan revision will guide the land and recreational management of the federally owned property that make up the lake and its shoreline for the next 25 years. Management activities include protecting natural and cultural resources, providing public land and water recreation, promoting visitor safety, and ensuring reservoir and dam operations. A map of the current land uses can be found on the back of the comment form for reference. Public input is especially needed regarding revised land use classifications and preparation of management plans. Definitions and examples of these terms are provided in the presentation noted below.

To add your comments, ideas, or concerns about the future land and recreational management for John Martin Reservoir, comments can be submitted using any of the following methods:

- fill out and return a comment form available at
